

WINE BY GLASS

|                |                                                                                               | Glass | Bottle |
|----------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|--------|
| SPARKLING WINE |                                                                                               |       |        |
| C121           | Pizzolato Spumante Organic ProseccoVeneto, Italy                                          | 12    | 78     |
| WHITE WINE     |                                                                                               |       |        |
| W214           | Grand Bateau by Château BeychevelleSauvignon Blanc 2023Saint-Julien, Bordeaux, France | 13    | 78     |
| W267           | Misha's Vineyard The Dress CirclePinot Gris 2023Central Otago, New Zealand            | 17    | 98     |
| RED WINE       |                                                                                               |       |        |
| R400           | Grand Bateau by Château BeychevelleMerlot 2022Saint-Julien, Bordeaux, France          | 15    | 88     |
| R390           | Zenato Ripassa Valpolicella RipassoDOC Superiore 2021Veneto, Italy                    | 19    | 108    |

CHAMPAGNE & SPARKLING

|      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Bottle |
|------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| C122 | De Stefani ProseccoVeneto, Italy                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 78     |
|      | Common notes across their range include apple, pear, peach, citrus, and hints of honeysuckle, jasmine, or wildflowers. The wines typically feature persistent, fine bubbles and a balanced, fresh acidity.                                             |        |
| C109 | Besserat De Bellefon Bleu BrutChampagne NVChampagne, France                                                                                                                                                                                    | 138    |
|      | The wine is the flagship wine of the Besserat de Bellefon house, known for its focus on gastronomy and a unique, low-pressure production process. This technique results in a creamy, fine, and lighter effervescence.                                 |        |
| C118 | Laurent Perrier Brut La Cuvée NVChampagne, France                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 168    |
|      | Pale gold colour, delicate mousse and vibrant notes of citrus, white flowers and vine peach. It offers a perfect balance of crisp freshness and creamy finesse.                                                                                        |        |
| C123 | Champagne Frerejean Frères Cuvée des Hussards,Premier Cru White 2013Champagne, France                                                                                                                                                          | 388    |
|      | The wine is a testament to the house's focus on quality, with over 10 years of aging to create a complex and graceful expression of its terroir. The wine's blend of 90% Chardonnay and 10% Pinot Noir comes from the Premier Cru vineyards of Vertus. |        |

ROSÉ WINE

|      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Bottle |
|------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| C105 | Château d'Esclans' Whispering Angel Rosé 2025Provence, France                                                                                                                                                            | 98     |
|      | On the nose, fresh notes of wild strawberries, red berries, white peach, and citrus blossom shine. The palate is crisp and lively, with red berries, wild strawberries, ripe peach, a touch of spice, and subtle minerality. |        |

WHITE WINE

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                   | Bottle |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| France                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                   |        |
| Burgundy                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                   |        |
| W249                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Domaine Jean–Marc Pillot Rully'Les Gaudoirs' 2020Côte Chalonnaise, France | 128    |
| Notes of crisp apple, pear, and citrus like grapefruit and key lime are complemented by subtle earthy aromas of beeswax, honey, and saline. The palate shows vibrant acidity, pronounced minerality, and flavours of green apple and citrus, with a touch of well–integrated oak.            |                                                                                   |        |
| W250                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Domaine Leflaives Macon–Verze 2022Maconnais, France                           | 188    |
| The palate is harmonious and creamy yet energetic, with a vibrant acidity. Flavours include apple, pear, lemon cake, grapefruit, and other citrus fruits, complemented by a saline or chalky minerality.                                                                                     |                                                                                   |        |
| W251                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Domaine Jean–Marc Pillot ChassagneMontrachet 2023Côte de Beaune, France   | 228    |
| The wine offers excellent concentration and a fine, creamy texture. It is mouthwatering and vibrant, with a prominent minerality and flavours of citrus and orchard fruit. Despite the ripeness of the vintage, the acidity and drive keep the wine focused and fresh.                       |                                                                                   |        |
| Bordeaux                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                   |        |
| W221                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Château Ferrande Graves Blanc 2022Bordeaux, France                            | 88     |
| The wine has a lively, crisp, and fresh character. The palate is balanced by a pleasant softness, with flavours of ripe pear, citrus, and melon. A delicate, chalky, and mineral–laden finish adds to its elegance.                                                                          |                                                                                   |        |
| Rhône Valley                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                   |        |
| W252                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | J. Denuzière Crozes–Hermitage Blanc 2021Rhône Valley, France                  | 128    |
| The palate is fresh and balanced, with flavours of citrus, peach, and yellow apple. It offers a creamy texture but with a clean, mineral–driven finish. While it shows softness and body, it retains a pleasant freshness and a touch of salinity, creating a harmonious and drinkable wine. |                                                                                   |        |
| Alsace                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                   |        |
| W212                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Domaine Albert Mann Gewürztraminer 2023Alsace, France                         | 118    |
| Features a balance of delicate residual sweetness and freshness, with a balanced acidity. Flavours include candied orange peel, tropical fruits such as mango and citrus. Viscous and rich, yet still possessing a delicate and refined feel.                                                |                                                                                   |        |
| W253                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Albert Mann Riesling Cuvée Albert 2019Alsace, France                          | 138    |
| The wine is a dry and structured Riesling from Alsace, appreciated for its combination of freshness, generous fruit, and vibrant minerality. Sourced from biodynamically grown grapes, the wine benefits from a mix of soil types, including gravel, clay, limestone and granite.            |                                                                                   |        |

WHITE WINE

France

Bottle

Languedoc–Roussillon

W254 Gérard Bertrand, Héritage An940 Bio Viognier, IGP Pays d'Oc 2024 88
Languedoc–Roussillon, France

The palate is ripe, round, and rich, featuring intense flavours of apricot, pear, orange blossom and peach, balanced by a fine, lush texture. The vibrant acidity keeps the wine fresh and clean, while a soft mineral imprint lingers on the harmonious finish.

Italy

W255 De Stefani Pinot Grigio 2021 78
Venazia, Italy

On the nose, aromas of pear, apple, and citrus are accented by acacia flowers and a touch of almond. The wine is fresh, elegant, and dry, with vibrant acidity and flavours of pear, apple, citrus, toasted nuts, and subtle minerality.

USA

W207 Chalk Hill Sonoma Coast Chardonnay 2022 118
California, USA

The wine is medium-bodied with a creamy, rich texture from 100% malolactic fermentation. Flavours echo the nose, with apple and pear complemented by touches of citrus, vanilla custard and toasted hazelnut. Balanced acidity keeps the palate fresh and lively.

Australia

W204 Wynns Coonawarra Riesling 2024 78
Australia

The wine is a fresh and bright Australian white wine from the iconic Wynns Coonawarra Estate. It is celebrated for its purity, crispness, and classic citrus character, which reflects the region's suitability for producing outstanding white wines despite its fame for reds.

W257 Penfolds Bin 51 Riesling 2022 108
Eden Valley, Australia

The palate is juicy and fresh, with concentrated flavours of lime juice, grapefruit, and lemon. It has a focused structure and an inviting, mineral style with a rich texture and persistent, "lacy" acidity, complemented with notes of green apple and crushed stones.

PW401 Penfolds Bin 144 Yattarna Chardonnay 2018 338
Southern Australia

The palate is focused and intense, balancing power with finesse. Flavours of citrus pith, nectarine, white peach, and green apple are supported by linear mineral acidity, with a silky, layered texture and a savoury, saline edge.

New Zealand

W208 Cloudy Bay Sauvignon Blanc 2025 98
Marlborough, New Zealand

The palate delivers juicy passionfruit and ripe white peach, with hints of makrut lime and delicate pepper. Light-bodied yet concentrated, it's lifted by crisp acidity and a saline minerality.

PREMIUM RED WINE

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                  | Bottle |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| France                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                  |        |
| PR553                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Château Beychevelle 2019Saint-Julien, Bordeaux, France                       | 328    |
| Medium-to-full-bodied, with ripe, concentrated flavours of dark fruit, plum, and blackcurrant. The tannins are fine-grained and well-integrated, providing structure while remaining polished and creamy. The texture is round, rich, and elegant, showcasing a vibrant energy and excellent depth.                                       |                                                                                  |        |
| PR554                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Pavillon Rouge du Château Margaux 2020Margaux, Bordeaux, France              | 568    |
| Seductive aromas of ripe blackcurrant, blackberry, and dark cherry are enhanced by Margaux florals of violet and potpourri, with hints of graphite, cedar, tobacco, pencil shavings, and subtle notes of sandalwood, mulberry, and licorice.                                                                                              |                                                                                  |        |
| PR555                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Château Cheval Blanc 'Le Petit Cheval' 2018Saint-Émilion, Bordeaux, France   | 568    |
| The palate is medium-bodied, round, and plush, with a silky, velvety texture. It delivers concentrated flavours of sweet plum, cherry, and ripe black fruit, supported by fine-grained, delicate tannins. Despite the vintage's ripeness, a lovely freshness and vibrant acidity run through the wine, giving it energy.                  |                                                                                  |        |
| PR556                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Château Lafite Rothschild Carruades de Lafite 2008Pauillac, Bordeaux, France | 888    |
| A complex and expressive nose of dark fruit, especially blackberry and blackcurrant, mixed with notes of cedar, graphite, and tobacco. Accents of vanilla from oak aging and scents of damp earth and smoke also come through.                                                                                                            |                                                                                  |        |
| Italy                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                  |        |
| PR557                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Marchesi Antinori Tignanello Toscana IGT 2019Tuscany, Italy                  | 568    |
| The palate is rich, graceful, and mouth-filling, offering a vibrant and well-balanced experience. Flavours of dark fruits, plum, and cassis are sustained by silky, velvety tannins and an exceptional freshness that gives the wine a long, persistent flavour profile. The wine shows great elegance and structure without being heavy. |                                                                                  |        |
| USA                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                  |        |
| PR558                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Overture 2021, 2nd Wine of Opus OneNapa Valley, USA                          | 488    |
| Juicy and bright on the palate, with a velvety texture and powdery tannins. Flavours of black currant, blueberry, and wild strawberries are pronounced, balanced by gentle lift and integrated acidity, with an intriguing savoury note of charred plum and baking spice.                                                                 |                                                                                  |        |

RED WINE

France

Bottle

Burgundy

R380    Domaine Jean–Baptiste Boudier Les Peuillets, Savigny–lès–Beaune Premier Cru 2022    188
Côte de Beaune, France

On the palate, it is supple yet focused, with a fine, silky texture. It features a core of red fruit flavours, balanced by a lively acidity and a pronounced mineral core with a saline finish.

R379    Domaine Dugat Py Bourgogne Rouge 2023    258
Burgundy, France

The palate is ripe, concentrated, and supple, with a fine, mineral–driven texture and good energy. Flavours of red and black berries, cherries, and plum are balanced by a fine, balanced acidity that provides freshness. The tannins are generally silky and well–integrated.

PR518    Domaine Bouchard Pere Fils Beaune 'Clos de la Mousse' 1er Cru 2017    208
Burgundy, France

The wine offers concentrated fruit flavours, including cherry and wild strawberry, supported by a firm, fine–grained, and silky tannin structure. Balanced and lively acidity provides freshness and extends the flavour.

R381    Domaine du Couvent Chambolle Musigny Clos de l'Orme 2020    268
Côte de Nuits, France

Medium–bodied and concentrated, with a silky, refined texture and great purity of fruit. The palate shows a mix of red and black fruit flavours, often with savoury or meaty notes and hints of spice.

Bordeaux

R326    Château Ferrande Graves Rouge 2021    88
Bordeaux, France

The wine has a supple and juicy attack, with a medium weight and a fine, concentrated, fruit–forward mid–palate. Flavours of dark plum, dark cherry, and blackberry are balanced by a lively, mouthwatering acidity. The tannins are round, supple, and silky.

R327    Château Moulin Riche By Château Léoville Poyferré 2017    138
Bordeaux, France

The wine is dense, concentrated, and fleshy on the palate. Flavours of dark fruits, cassis, and spices are prominent, supported by firm and silky tannins. The wine shows a powerful, almost masculine structure.

PR516    Château Petit Village Le Jardin de Petit Village 2021 Pomerol    168
Bordeaux, France

The palate is ripe, dense, and full–bodied, showcasing rich fruit concentration. Flavours of blackberry, blackcurrant, plum, and chocolate are prominent. The tannins are firm but well–integrated and silky, and the wine has a velvety texture. Some reviewers also note an earthy, forest floor component.

RED WINE

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                     | Bottle |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| Bordeaux                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                     |        |
| R324                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Château Corbin Grand Cru Classe 2019Saint-Émilion, Bordeaux, France                             | 168    |
| The palate is medium to full-bodied, with concentrated, muscular fruit flavours. It has a firm, grainy, yet refined texture and is supported by elegant, fine-grained tannins. Flavours often include black fruits, plum preserves, and crushed red berries, with a good core of fruit and a vibrant freshness. |                                                                                                     |        |
| R382                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Château Boyd Cantenac 2018, 3rd Cru ClasséMargaux, France                                       | 208    |
| Medium-bodied and supple, with a fine, silky texture. Flavours of dark fruits and cassis are supported by firm yet elegant tannins and vibrant freshness that balances the richness, complemented by subtle toasted oak notes.                                                                                  |                                                                                                     |        |
| R361                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Penfolds FWT 585 Cabernet Blend 2021Bordeaux, France                                            | 228    |
| A vibrant palate with flavours of wild strawberry, cranberry, and satsuma plum. A creamy oak influence and notes of freshly baked pastries are present, while the tannins are fine and gravelly. Notes of herbaceous spices and a dusting of cacao powder add depth.                                            |                                                                                                     |        |
| PR519                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Château Lascombes Margaux Grand Cru 2010Margaux, Bordeaux, France                               | 328    |
| On the nose, expect rich black and red fruit aromas, such as blackcurrants, blackberries, and cherry, along with notes of chocolate, espresso, licorice, and sweet spices with hints of pencil shavings, cedar, and violet.                                                                                     |                                                                                                     |        |
| Rhône Valley                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                     |        |
| R322                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Domaine de la Solitude Famille Lancon 2023Rhône Valley, France                                  | 98     |
| Expect an intense bouquet of concentrated, ripe red berry fruits, such as cherries and raspberries. These are complemented by subtle notes of black pepper, licorice, and mixed herbs.                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                     |        |
| R384                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | J. Denuzière Crozes-Hermitage Rouge 2021Rhône Valley, France                                    | 128    |
| Expect fresh and concentrated notes of red berries, such as raspberry and cherry, alongside subtle floral and spicy undertones, such as black pepper with earthy, smoky, or herbal notes.                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                     |        |
| Languedoc Roussillon                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                     |        |
| R314                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Aegerter Signature AA Pinot Noir 2022Languedoc, France                                          | 88     |
| The palate is elegant and surprisingly supple, with mellow tannins that provide a silky, smooth structure. It has a lively character, with red fruit flavours balanced by fresh acidity.                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                     |        |
| R385                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Gérard Bertrand Château l'HospitaletGrand Vin La Clape GSM 2022Languedoc Roussillon, France | 138    |
| The wine is full-bodied, concentrated, and fleshy. Flavours of fruit jam, black cherry, and currant are supported by supple, silky tannins. It has a great balance of richness and elegance, with an underlying minerality.                                                                                     |                                                                                                     |        |

RED WINE

|       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Bottle |
|-------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| Italy |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |        |
| R376  | Barbanera Chianti Riserva Sangiovese 2021DOCG Chianti, Italy                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | 98     |
|       | The nose is intense and complex, offering primary notes of ripe cherries, raspberries, and plums. These are layered with distinctive floral aromas of violets and spicy notes of pepper, licorice, and dried herbs. Subtle hints of vanilla, tobacco, and oak from barrel aging may also be present. |        |
| R386  | Le Difese 2021, Sangiovese Cabernet Sauvignon,3rd Wine of SassicaiaTuscany, Italy                                                                                                                                                                                                            | 118    |
|       | Juicy, lively, and fresh, with flavours of tangy cherry, blackberry, and plum. It offers a soft and textured palate with fine, supple tannins that are well-integrated. The Sangiovese provides a tangy, mouthwatering acidity that lifts the fruit and gives it energy.                             |        |
| R366  | Tenuta Sant’Antonio Amarone DellaValpolicella Antonio Castagnedi 2020Veneto, Italy                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 158    |
|       | An expressive and complex bouquet of ripe red fruit, especially cherry, and dark fruit, along with spicy notes of licorice, black pepper, and hints of chocolate with subtle balsamic notes.                                                                                                         |        |
| R367  | Le Serre Nuove dell’Ornellaia 2021,2nd Wine of OrnellaiaTuscany, Italy                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 208    |
|       | The wine is full-bodied, rich, and concentrated, with a velvety and smooth texture. Flavours of dark berries, dark chocolate, and spice are prominent, supported by a fresh, vibrant acidity that provides balance.                                                                                  |        |
| R368  | Giovannil Rosso Barolo Cerretta DOCG 2020Barolo, Italy                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 238    |
|       | The palate is concentrated, powerful, and full-bodied, with firm yet ripe tannins and crisp acidity. It offers a mix of red fruit and savoury, earthy flavours, with a lingering fruit-driven sweetness and a balanced, fresh feel.                                                                  |        |
| Spain |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |        |
| R321  | Arzuaga La Planta Tempranillo 2023Ribera Del Duero, Spain                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | 118    |
|       | The palate is fresh, elegant, and savoury, with a soft and balanced entry. It features smooth, silky tannins and good volume. The wine maintains excellent freshness and energy, with a persistent and fruity finish.                                                                                |        |
| R369  | Predicador Tinto Tempranillo Blend 2020Rioja, Spain                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 128    |
|       | Complex and concentrated bouquet of ripe red and black fruits, complemented by notes of fine wood, balsamic, and sweet spices. A strong mineral character, along with hints of wild herbs and menthol, adds to the complexity.                                                                       |        |

RED WINE

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                    | Bottle |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| USA                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                    |        |
| R328                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | The Prisoner Unshackled Cabernet Sauvignon 2023Napa Valley, USA                | 108    |
| A youthful and fresh bouquet of ripe dark fruits, including blackberry, blackcurrant, and plum, with a subtle hint of olive tapenade. Other notes may include dried herbs and spices.                                                                |                                                                                    |        |
| R370                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Penfolds Bin 600 Cabernet Shiraz 2019Califonia, USA                            | 158    |
| A complex bouquet of black plum, crushed raspberry, and blackcurrant is layered with cinnamon, mocha, earth, and coffee, alongside savory notes of olives, feta, cured meats, hints of Thai red curry, and floral touches of lavender and violet.    |                                                                                    |        |
| China                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                    |        |
| R371                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Petit Mont Baima Snow Mountain Derong Cabernet Sauvignon 2023Shangri-La, China | 108    |
| The palate is full-bodied, concentrated, and succulent, with a bold texture. Flavours of dark fruits and cloves are prominent. The wine has firm, grippy tannins that are balanced by a lively acidity, contributing to its freshness and structure. |                                                                                    |        |
| R372                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Canaan Winery Chapter and Verse Mastery Pinot Noir 2019Hebei, China            | 198    |
| Rich and vibrant bouquet of red fruits, including cranberry, raspberry, and red cherry. These fruity notes are complemented by complex and delicate layers of oak, spice, and subtle earthy hints.                                                   |                                                                                    |        |
| R373                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Penfolds CWT 521 Cabernet Sauvignon Marselan 2022Ningxia, China                | 248    |
| A full-bodied red blending Cabernet Sauvignon from Shangri-la, offering structure and herbal notes, with Marselan from Ningxia, providing plush, spicy fruit. The 2022 vintage shows excellent flavour and maturity despite above-average rainfall.  |                                                                                    |        |

RED WINE

Australia

Bottle

R374

The Lane Vineyard Block Series Shiraz
Viognier 2021
Adelaide Hills, Australia

98

The palate is medium-bodied, elegant, and savoury, with a pure fruit expression. Flavours of blueberry, blackberry, and blood orange are threaded with spices and chocolate. The tannins are fine, smooth, and well-integrated, with a refreshing acidity that keeps the wine lively and balanced.

R304

Penfolds Bin 138 GSM 2020
Barossa Valley, Australia

138

A traditional Barossa Valley blend of Grenache, Shiraz, and Mataro (Mourvèdre), inspired by the Rhône Valley. The 2019 vintage is noted for its high quality despite a hot, low-yielding season, resulting in a rich, full-bodied wine with intense flavours and ripe tannins.

R375

Yangarra Estate Vineyard Old Vine Grenache 2023
McLaren Vale, Australia

138

Aromas of wild raspberries, red fruit, orange rind, and florals are accented by potpourri, dried herbs, and earthy notes. The silky, elegant palate features red berries, boysenberries, red licorice, and a hint of wild strawberries, with a savoury, tea-like nuance and vibrant acidity.

PR503

Penfolds RWT Bin 798 Shiraz 2023
Barossa Valley, Australia

338

The palate is generous, full-bodied, and velvety, with concentrated flavours of blue fruits (boysenberry, plum, mulberry), white cherry, and chocolate. It has a structured yet silky texture, supported by fine-grained, integrated tannins and a fine acidity that adds tension and freshness.

New Zealand

R309

Cloudy Bay Pinot Noir 2023
Marlborough, New Zealand

128

An expressive bouquet of wild hedgerow fruits, crushed rose petals, and sun-warmed red cherry. Critics also note aromas of boysenberry, raspberry and strawberry, with hints of mushroom, spice and earth.

RED WINE

Chile

Bottle

R364 Merelo Merlot 2020 108
Central Valley, Chile

The palate is smooth and medium-plus bodied, with a velvety mouthfeel. Flavours of plum, black cherry, and blackberry dominate, interwoven with hints of chocolate, coffee, tobacco, and spices (clove, black pepper). The wine has medium acidity, which keeps it fresh and lively with a mild, fine-grained tannin structure.

R377 Epu, Cabernet Sauvignon, Carmenere, 198
2nd wine of Almaviva 2021
Maipo Valley, Chile

Fresh, pleasant, and elegant, with aromas of blackberries, cassis, cherry, and fig dominating. Notes of red pepper and subtle hints of vanilla, spice, earth and dried rose petals also appear.

Argentina

R325 Terrazas Grand Malbec 2021 138
Mendoza, Argentina

The wine is a classic, 100% Malbec from Argentina's high-altitude Mendoza vineyards. It is known for its intense fruit concentration, elegance and distinct character, which comes from blending grapes from multiple premium subregions, including Luján de Cuyo and the Uco Valley.

JUICE

5.80 per glass
22 per jug

柚子
Yuzu

橙汁
Orange

苹果汁
Apple

CANNED DRINK

4.50 per can

可口可乐
Coca-Cola®

可口可乐零度
Coca-Cola® Zero

雪碧
Sprite®

冰柠檬茶
Iced Lemon Tea

HERBAL DRINK

4.50 per glass

甘草桔汁 (冰 / 热)
Liquorice Root and Lime (Iced / Hot)

STILL / SPARKLING WATER (50cl)

Bottle

纯净水
JUMBO Drinking Water

3.50

普娜
Acqua Panna

6.50

圣培露
San Pellegrino

6.50

Nutri-Grade is based on preparation before addition of ice.

Scan QR Code for Nutrition Info

Rolling vintages are subjected to change without prior notice.
Prices are subjected to service charge and prevailing GST.

BEER SELECTIONS

|                          | Pint  | Jug |
|--------------------------|-------|-----|
| 虎牌Tiger Beer         | 10.80 | 42  |
| 喜力Heineken           | 12.50 |     |
| 健力士黑啤酒Guinness Stout | 13.50 |     |

COGNAC (70cl)

|                     | Bottle |
|---------------------|--------|
| Martell VSOP        | 228    |
| Martell Cordon Bleu | 488    |
| Hennessy XO         | 568    |

WHISKY

|                                     | Bottle |
|-------------------------------------|--------|
| Johnnie Walker Black Label70 cl | 158    |
| Chivas Regal 12 Years70 cl      | 168    |
| Macallan 12 Years70 cl          | 278    |
| Chivas Regal 18 Years75 cl      | 288    |
| Yamazaki 12 Years70 cl          | 608    |

CHINESE SHAO HSING WINE

|                                                     | Bottle |
|-----------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 葫芦花雕Hulu Hua Diao                               | 68     |
| 冬趣2010绍兴黄酒Dong Qu 2010, China                   | 198    |
| 塔牌本绍兴黄酒Pagoda Ben, China                        | 198    |
| 塔牌三十年绍兴黄酒礼盒装30 Year Pagoda Shao Hsing Gift Pack | 298    |

CHINESE WHITE RICE WINE (50cl)

|                                                | Bottle |
|------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 泸州老窖 (紫砂大麴)Lu Zhou Lao Jiao (Zi Sha Da Qu) | 168    |
| 水井坊Shui Jing Fang                          | 358    |
| 五粮液Wu Liang Ye                             | 488    |
| 贵州飞天茅台Kweichow Moutai Flying Fairy         | 688    |

SAKE (72cl)

|            | Bottle |
|------------|--------|
| Takumi 匠   | 88     |
| Nagurayama | 138    |
| Maihime    | 198    |